PREVIEWING THE DRESSES they will wear to the dance in honor of St. Patrick's Day are, from left, Mmes. Gus Mason, Floyd Marquez and H. K. Long. They will attend the March 14 St. Philomena dance.

Time to Don Green for St. Patrick's Day

Dancing, parades and Irish specialties are the word as St. Patrick's Day rolls around once more. Everyone, even the Irish, will soon be wearing the green and joining in the gaiety in honor of Ireland's patron saint.

The day has been celebrated in America since the first days of the nation, so having no Gaelic ties is not an excuse for missing out on a good time.

Torrance will be no exception in the holiday fun feting St. Pat. Three dances are scheduled.

Mel Coates' orchestra will play from 9 p. m. until 1 a. m. for the gala annual St. Patrick's Day dance at Bert S. Crossland Post 170, 1109 Border Ave. Door prizes are included in the donation price of 50c.

A "shamrock dance" with the Vanguards providing the music for the evening is announced by Mike Cicero of the Torrance Moose Lodge.

The dance will take place at the Torrance Moose Hall, 1744 West Carson St. at 9 p.m.

The men's and women's council of St. Philomena's have also made plans for a gala evening in honor of the holiday.

The festive affair will start at 8 p. m. at the school hall, 21900 South Main St.

Mrs. Herman Ludwig, president of the Peter and Paul Altar Society, will be assisted by a committee of the Knights of Columbus Holy Name Society and Mothers' Club in preparing a St. Patrick's Day ham dinner at the St. Peter and Paul School auditorium, 706 Bay View Ave., Wilmington.

The dinner is set for March 15 from 12 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. Tickets will be available at the door.

A special treat for mother is on the calendar. No need to prepare a big breakfast before church on St. Patrick's Day.

The Altrusa Club's pancake breakfast will be served from 9 a. m. to 12 noon at the Civic Auditorium. All funds from the breakfast will go toward new uniforms for the Cadet Band. Donation will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

The best in Irish Cuisine prepared by professional chefs is assured for everyone attending the Fifth Annual St. Patrick's Day Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner at St. Catherine Labourer Church, corner of Redondo Beach Blvd. and Ainsworth Ave.

The dinner will be served

Brotherhood Meeting

The Brotherhood of the First American Lutheran met recently at the church for a pot luck supper and meeting.

A special program was planned with devotionals by Philip Stuart and a film "Hagar the Egyptian" presented. Ping pong, darts and other games were played.

Glittering Decor Planned for Gala Purim Ball

A collection of Queen Esther dolls, in glittering crowns, will be used by Mrs. Sidney Greene, assisted by Mrs. Edward Sokolski as centerpieces for each table of six at Temple Menorah Sisterhood's gala Purim dinner-dance, March 21, at the smart new Cockatoo Inn, Imperial and Hawthorne Bldvs., Hawthorne.

Many pre-dance cocktail parties are being planned by several sisterhood members to set the mood for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glassman, Col. and Mrs. Sidney Greene, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schear, Dr. and Mrs. Gene Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schumacher and Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Ellenhorn, the Hospitality Committee, will be on hand early to welcome the guests as they arrive for the evening. A New York steak dinner will be featured along with sliced green beans, a specialty of the Cockatoo, salad, rolls and beverages.

Accompanying the restaurant's dessert will be a special treat, "Hamantaschen," a traditional Purim pastry, prepared by several Temple Menorah women. An orchestra will provide music for dancing as well as listening.

Reservations at $12.50 per couple may be made by contacting Mmes. Herbert Rosen, Bernard Rivo or Werner L. Frank in the Rolling Hills area. Mrs. Jack Bozman will take reservations.

tions in the Palos Verdes vicinity, while Mmes. Edward Sokolski, David Morrison, Henry Rappaport and David Levine will make arrangements for those living in the Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Mel Marguliez will be working in the Redondo Beach area, and those families living in Palos Verdes Riviera may contact Mmes. Robert Eckhouse and Paul Glassman. Covering the Torrance neighborhood will be Mmes. Melvin Schumacher and Jack Fernandez.

Mrs. Sam Katz will take reservations in Hermosa Beach and in Manhattan Beach. Mmes. Stanley Feinberg and Louis Bloom may be contacted. Mrs. Albert Carmona has prepared the tickets of admission which will be sent to those making reservations. Mrs. Jackie Belford, ways and means committee chairman, announced.

The publicity committee headed by Mrs. Werner L. Frank, and assisted by Mmes. Joseph Cohen, David Brandwein and Fred Spanier have been hard at work in the preparation of articles and posters emphasizing the fact that proceeds from the dinner dance will go to Temple Menorah's religious school, which is recognized as one of the outstanding religious schools in the Los Angeles area. Temple Menorah's Rabbi Henri Front announced that at present 180 students are benefiting from its fine program.

Interest in what will be a most memorable affair is running high, with many advance reservations already made. Mrs. Werner L. Frank, FR 8-2621, may be contacted for further information.

Faculty Wives' Fashion Show for Scholarship Fund

Faculty Wives of El Camino College will stage their annual fashion show, March 19, at 8 p.m. in the Campus Center.

For many years the Faculty Wives sponsored the annual fashion show to raise money for the Student Loan Fund. When this fund became self-supporting last year, the club voted to inaugurate the Eva M. Murdock Scholarship Fund, honoring the wife of the first president of El-Camino College, Forrest G. Murdock.

The award consists of $200 and is awarded to the graduating woman student of El Camino who is judged most outstanding in citizenship and scholarship. Mrs. Albert S. Karr, acting chairman of the fashion show committee, is directing this year's affair.

Oracles Install New Officers

The South Bay Oracles and Past Oracles Club installed the following officers for the coming year at the meeting, March 9: Mmes. Belya Brase, president; Mary Balongee, vice-president; Lillian Wundrow, secretary and Maude Jensch, treasurer.

Mrs. Mary Baker acted as the installing officer, she was assisted by other members of the various camps.

Torrance will be the hostess camp for the event which will be held in the Western Club in Gardena at 12 a.m. following an Installation Luncheon.

AN UNUSUAL TREE WAS PRESENTED by the Beau Jardin Garden Club March 6 to the South Bay Association of Exceptional Children Foundation. From left, Mmes. Kenneth C. Moe, vice president, Beau Jardin; and John Beattie, treasurer, give the "Money Tree" to Chester F. Lancaster of the Foundation.

Russian Culture Subject of Speech by Dr. Wendell Miller

Wendell L. Miller, D.D., honored the South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Phi with a lecture on Russian culture March 11, according to Mrs. James T. Walsh, program chairman.

Dr. Miller is a recognized platform personality, he travels extensively each year in Europe gathering more pictures and material for future lectures.

Each year he goes behind the Iron Curtain to visit both Russia and satellite countries, where he photographs and interviews.

Recently Dr. Miller came out of retirement from the ministry to fill the pulpit of Manhattan Beach Community Church.

The group met at the home of Mrs. John Leeper, 3825 Via Palomino, Palos Verdes Estates, at 7:45 p.m., with Mrs. William Frhrrie as hostess.

South Bay area interested in affiliating may call Mrs. Renn at FA 9-7538 or Mrs. Ruth Fyhrrie at DA 9-7540.

At the February meeting Mrs. Dewey French, Torrance, was named chairman of the May alumnae social and the group welcomed Mrs. Donald Burns, Inglewood, from Beta Chi, Bucknell University.

T-Shirt Sale Announced

A T-shirt sale will be held by Harbor City School PTA today and tomorrow it is announced Mrs. Carl Gregory, ways and means chairman.

At the recent meeting, Mrs. Alvis Creech, principal announced that sixteen new trees have been planted on the school grounds.
